

Behind The Wall:

September 10, 2020

My name is Cody Williams and I am currently 24 years old. I am writing this article to try and get my name out there for some help. I plan on starting my own business when I hit the free world, but I am not well versed on how to do this and don't really have the funds or correct resources. I am very smart and am extremely dedicated but need a little bit of guidance. I do have a few general ideas and am trying to start before I even get out. I am writing to your company because I see you are about your business and might be able to help me at least obtain some resources. I also like to write and spend a lot of time writing articles about different things I see and hear or when I have inspirational thoughts. Again I can't find anyone to write for. When I have a certain topic I write my best articles. If you can point me in the right direction or do anything that can possibly help me, I would greatly appreciate it. If you have any faith in me or would give me a chance, give me a topic to write about and I will send it to you, so you can see my potential. Whether you can help me or not I want to thank you for your time and consideration.

Always with Love And Respect!
